

THRASHES POOR MARKSMAN.

James Queen of South Street and Freedom Avenue, Woodhaven, thinking that James O'Rourke, Long Island Railroad gateman at Freedom and Atlantic Avenues, had lowered the crossing gates just to spite him, went home this afternoon, got a revolver and fired four ineffectual shots at O'Rourke. When the flagman found that the man's revolver was empty, he gave Queen a sound beating. Police Capt. Corcoran and Detective Thomas of the Richmond Station went to the scene in time to see Queen thrashed. They took him to Jamaica Court and returned him on a charge of felonious assault.

CONSUL FROST BRINGS
DETAILS OF 80 SINKINGS

United States Representative at Queenstown Among 66 Passengers Reaching America on Armed Liner.

From a British port there arrived at an American port to-day an American vessel with twenty-three first cabin passengers and forty-three second class passengers. The ship is armed with three guns manned by crews from the United States Navy but had no occasion to use them on the voyage. Among the passengers was Lieut. F. A. Sutton of the British artillery, who lost his right hand in action.

Wesley Frost, American Consul at Queenstown, was another passenger, his wife and daughter accompanying him. Consul Frost will lay before the Department of State at Washington detailed testimony about the sinking of eighty ships upon each of which were Americans.

Because of the great strain to which Consul Frost has been subjected during nearly three years of submarine warfare, he was granted an indefinite leave. The Government is expected to give him a more important post in one of the South American capitals. Of the submarine situation he said to-day that the sinkings by U boats seemed to be of recurrent character. The fact that the destruction last week was very low led him to say that the outlook was hopeful, but that the menace was still very serious. He believes it more important to stop the submarines with guns than to feed them ships.

Newmeyer, New Orleans; sixth district, William G. Hook, Toronto.

FRANCISCO VILLA HURT
BY FALL FROM HORSE

Bandit Chief Later Defeated in Battle by Carranza Forces at Puebla.

PRESIDIO, Tex., June 7.—Francisco Villa was injured when his horse fell and kicked him in the chest during the battle of Saucedo, May 27. The man at whose house Villa stopped at San Jose came here to-day and said Villa remained at his house three days until he had recovered sufficiently to rejoin his troops. This accounted for Villa's absence from the Ojinaga fight.

Villistas Are Defeated in Battle at Puebla.

JUAREZ, Mex., June 7.—After three hours of hard fighting the Government forces of Gen. Cordova Espinosa defeated the command of Francisco Villa Monday at Puebla, six miles south of Ojinaga.

Gen. Padilla, a Villa commander, surrendered to the Government forces at Escalon, with eighty men.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL
DEAFNESS AND HEAD
NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your drugist and get 1 ounce of Permat (double strength), and add to it 1 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Choked nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advt.
